

UCE Installation

This guide will show you how to install iPECS UCE on your Android Device

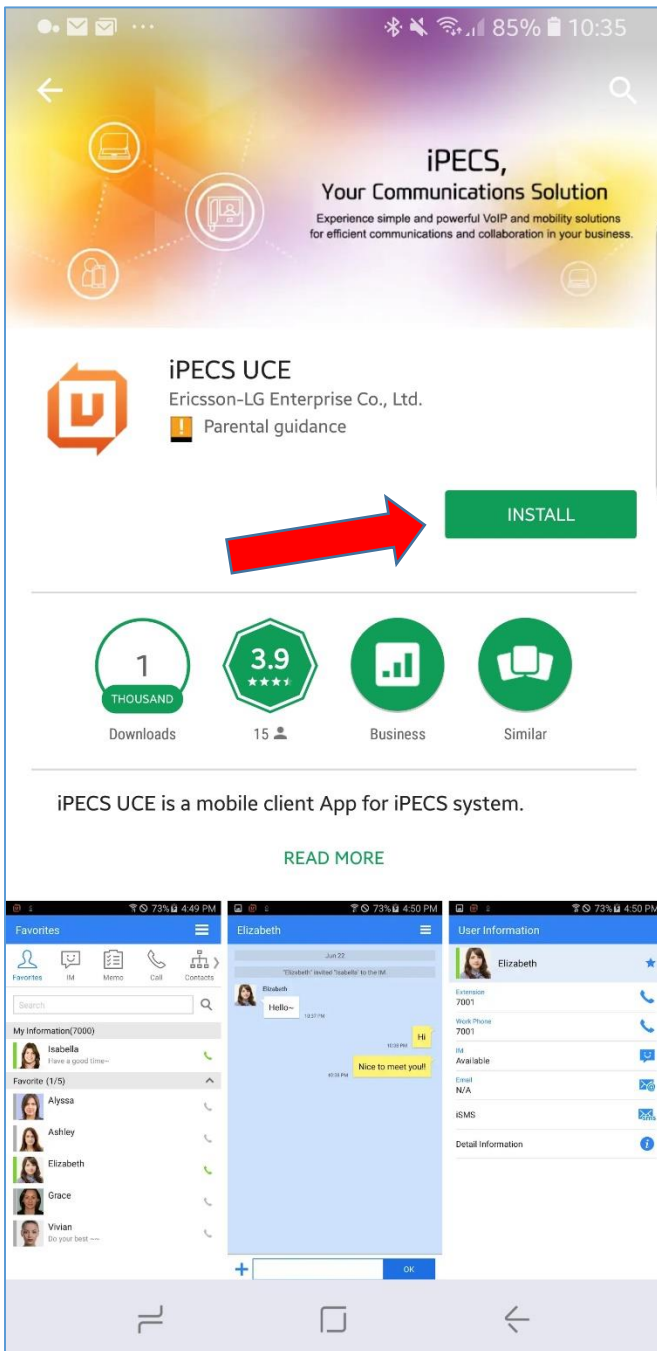

1. Navigate to and open the Play store application on your device

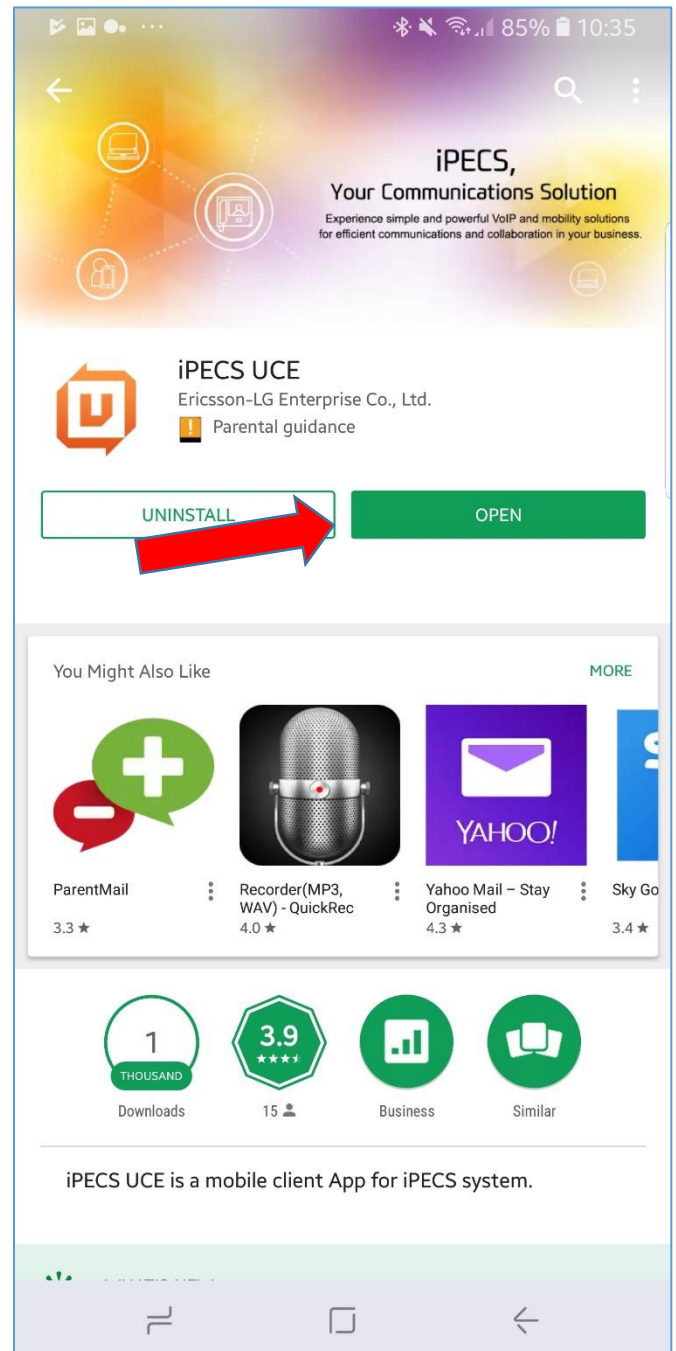

2. Using the search box enter iPECS UCE and select the iPECS UCE option in the search results

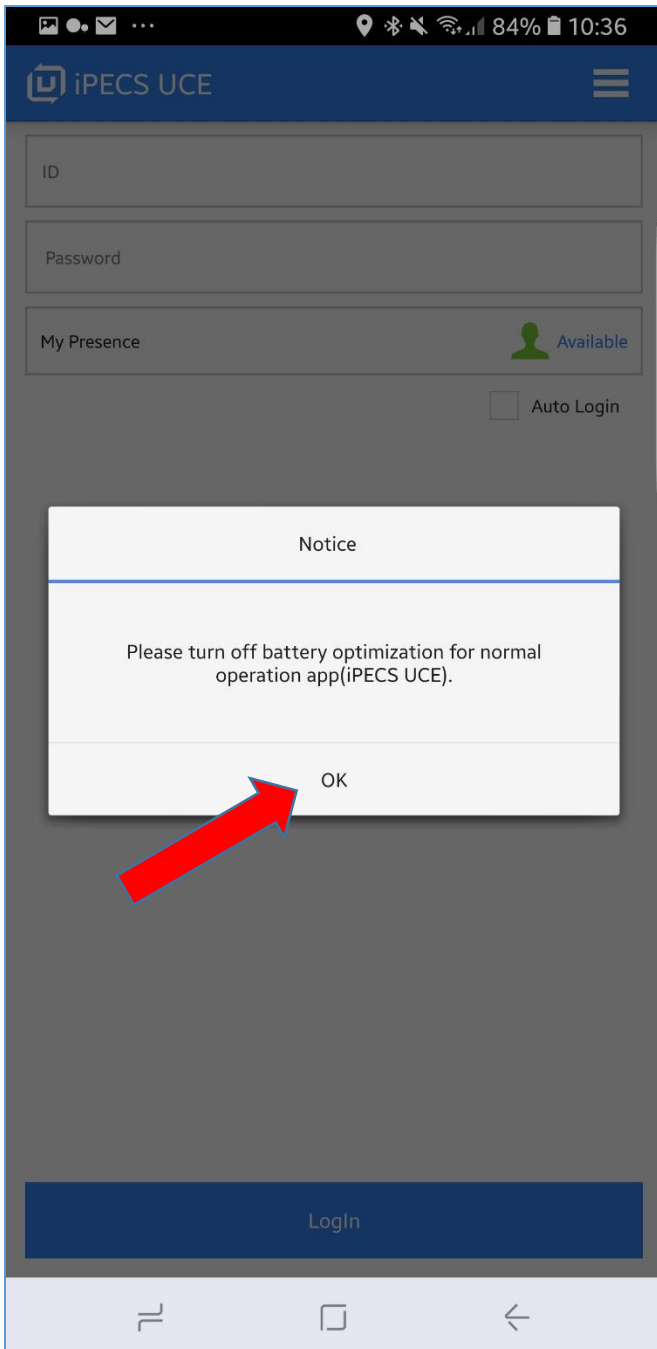

3. Press the Install button to download the Application to your device

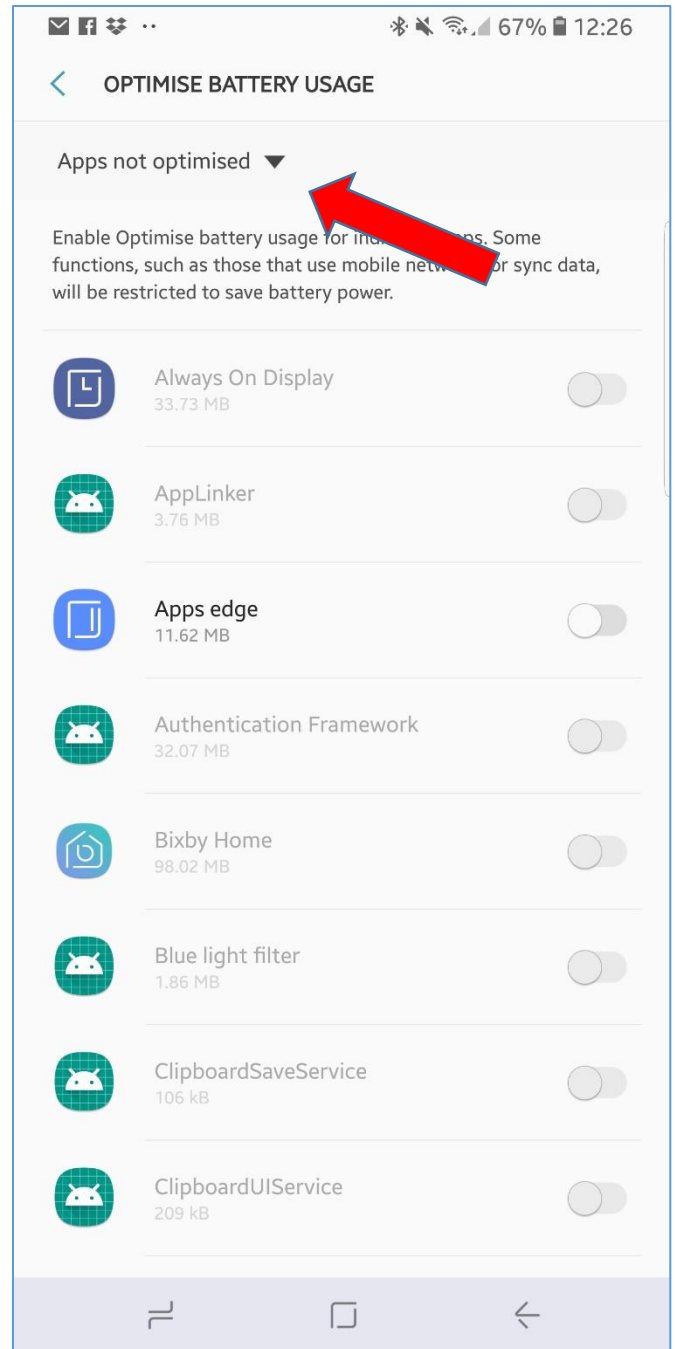

4. Once installed press the open button to open the application

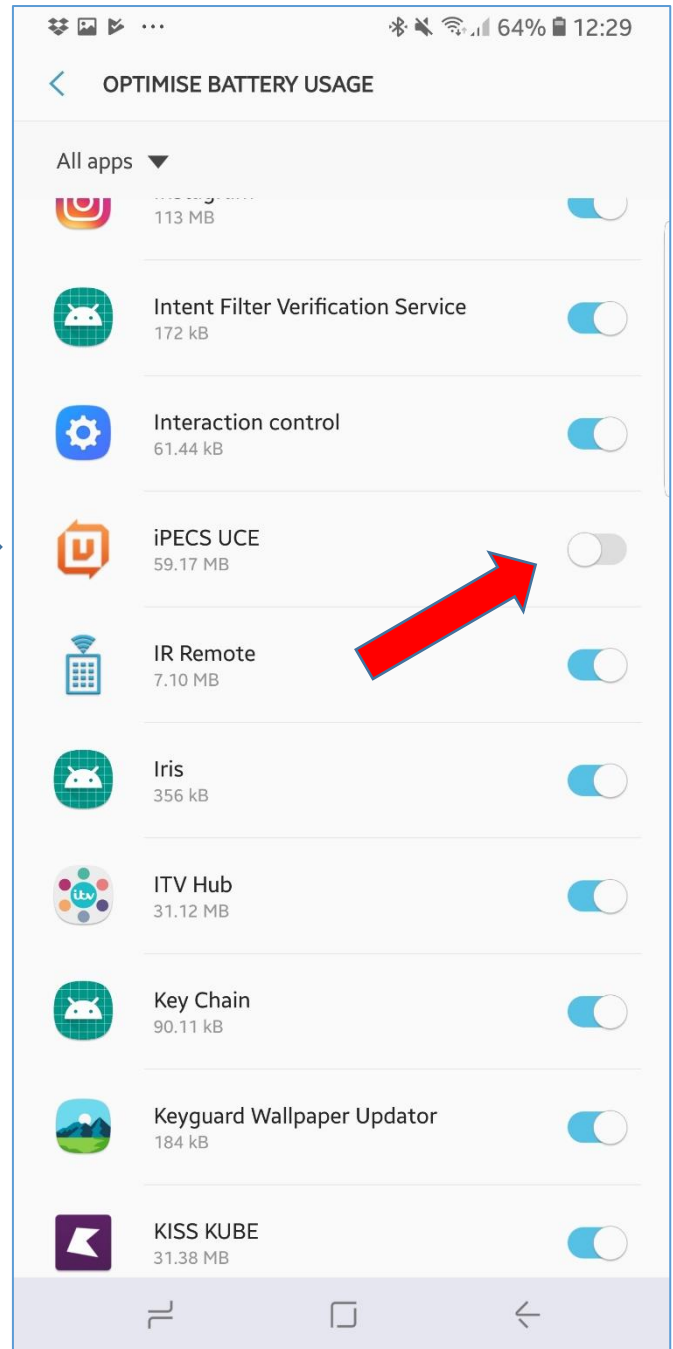

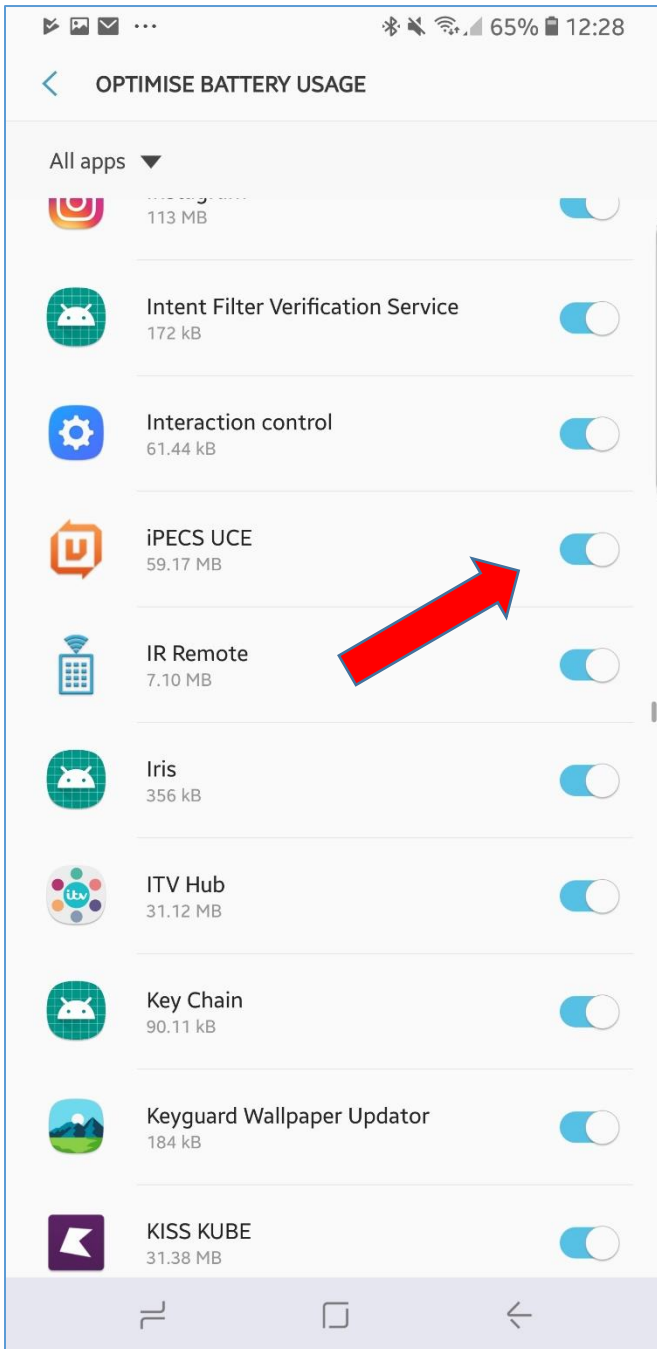

5. If you are prompted to turn off battery optimization select ok

6. Press the arrow and change the dropdown menu to All Apps

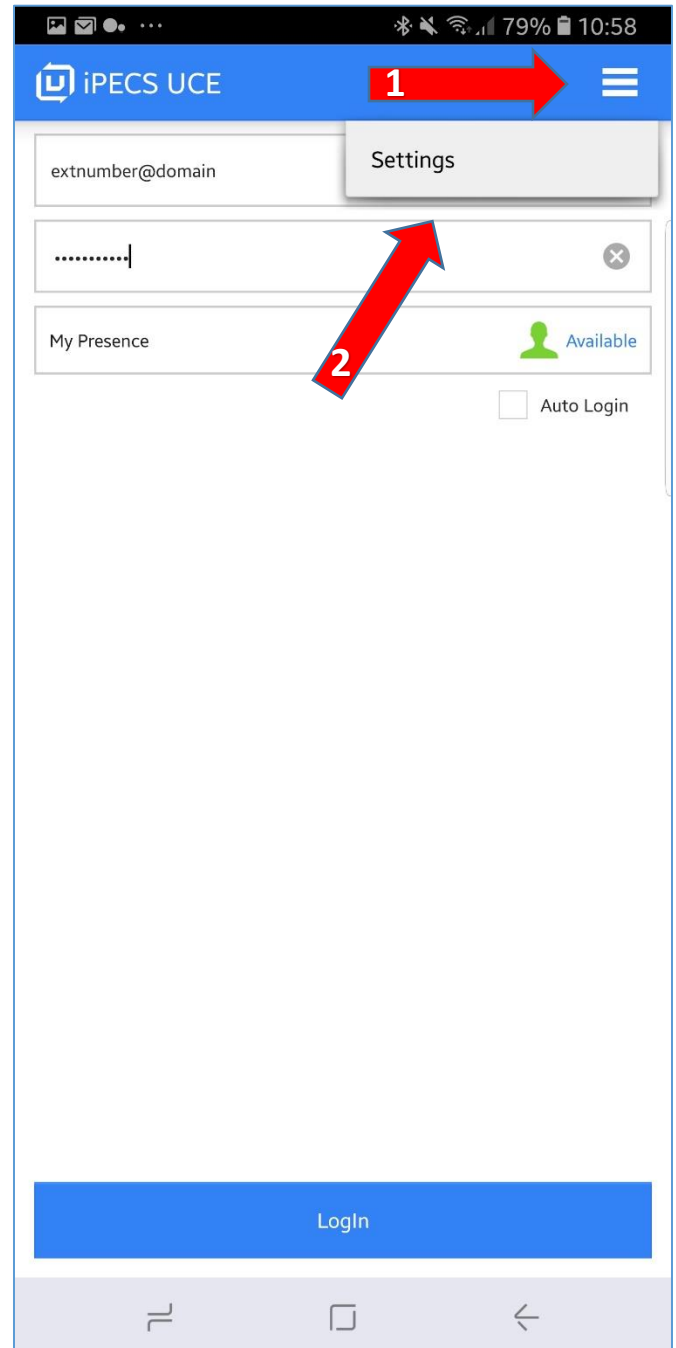

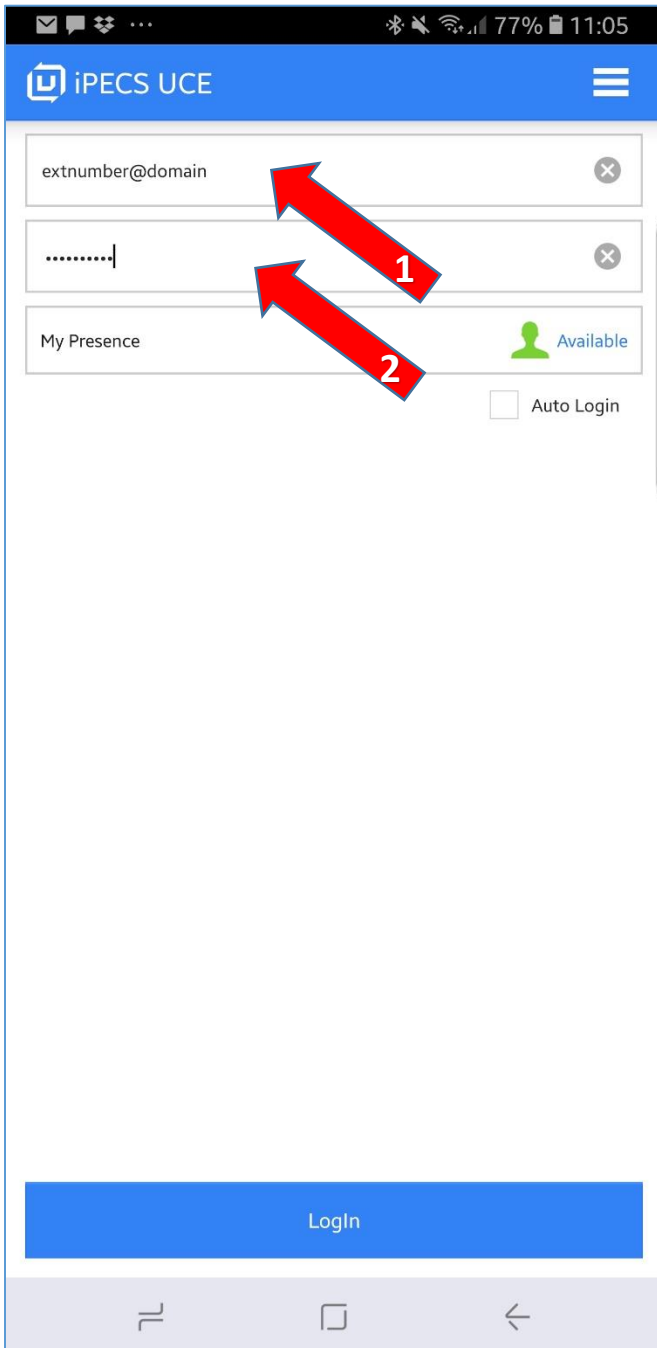

7. Scroll down through your apps to iPECS UCE and change the toggle to the off position (greyed out)

8. Press the back key and it will take you to the application

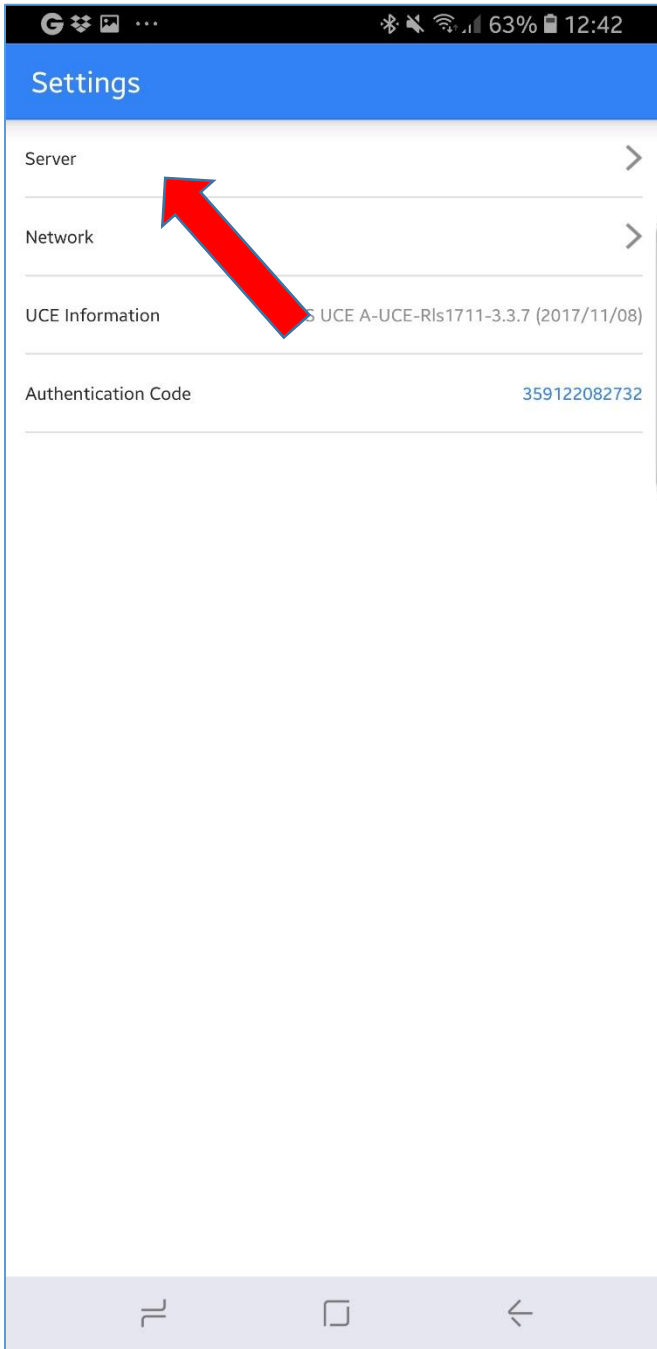

9. Enter your supplied User ID and Password

10. Press the 3 lines in the top right and press settings

 If you do not have this please contact 01656 334455 and speak to the support team

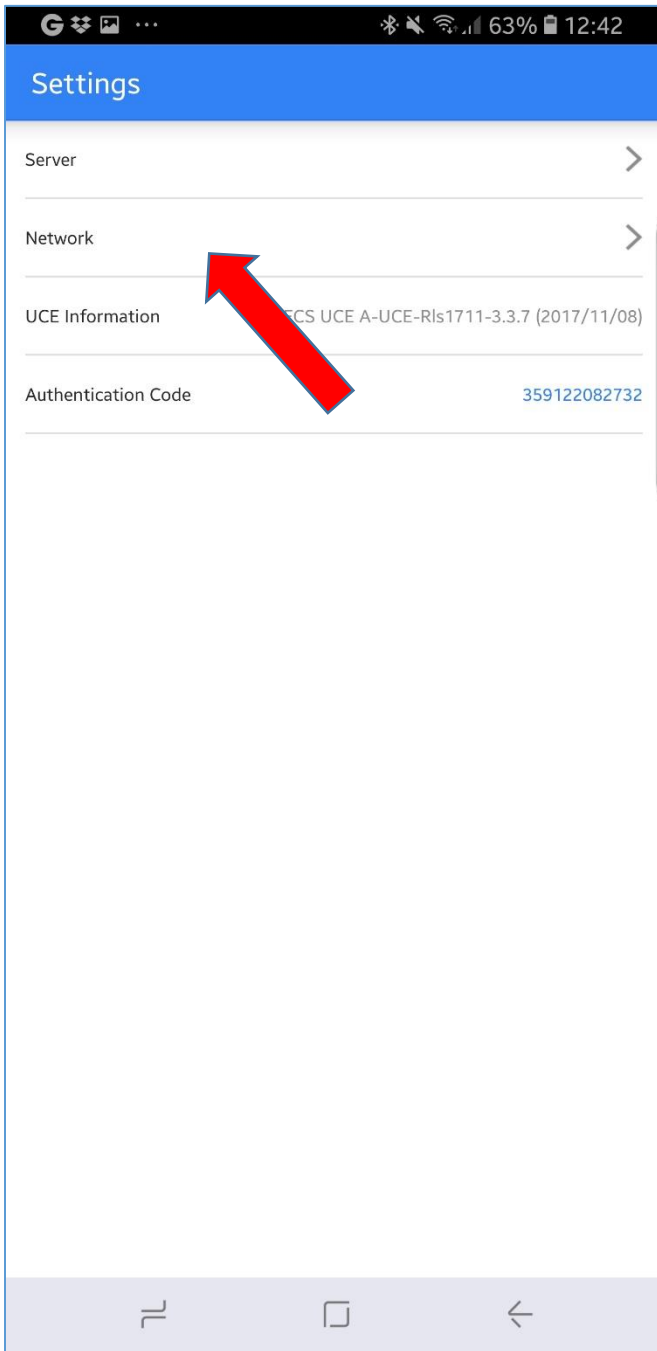

11. Select the Server option

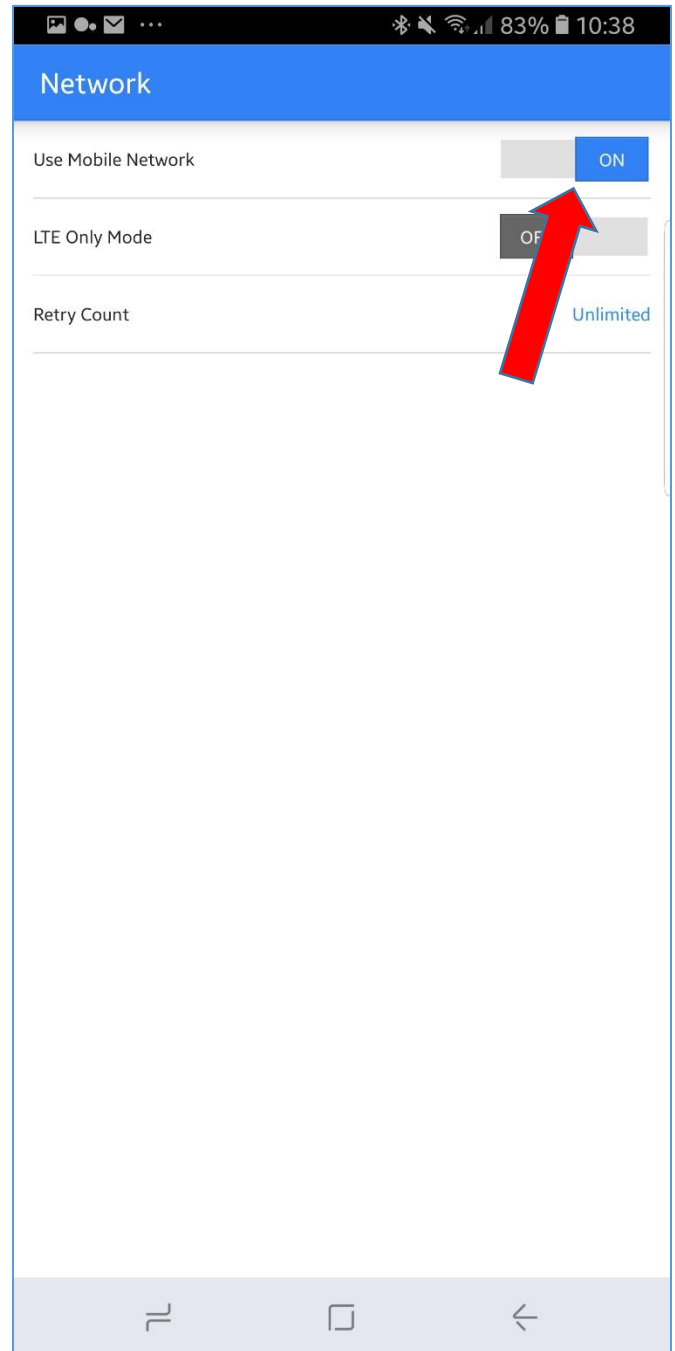

12. Enter 185.110.180.16 as the server ID and press OK

13. Select the Network option

14. Toggle the Use Mobile Network to On

15. Press the back key twice

16. Select Auto Login and press the blue Login Button to start the application

